

'Year Out' Trainee Landscape Architect

£19,038 - £21,426 per annum

Three Minsters House, Winchester

37 hour per week, temporary

Ref: HCC1309232

Hampshire County Council's in-house Architectural Design Practice is multi-disciplinary with over 200 professional staff. We continue to build on a tradition of public architecture at the leading edge of design and receive a number of national design awards for our work. We are passionate to develop landscape architecture, which is meaningful and enriching to the users, and which meets the County Council aims for sustainable development.

We work on a wide range of projects which include education, sports, arts, health, social services, heritage and urban design projects, with the principal focus on the estate of over 500 schools. The successful applicants will need to communicate ideas clearly and be able to deliver inspiring and technically sound designs.

Currently we have a landscape group comprising landscape strategy and implementation teams comprising 10 landscape architects and a landscape clerk of works . We are committed to the ongoing training and development of our staff to achieve their full creative potential.

See our web site: <http://www.hants.gov.uk/architecture/landscape.html>

The Trainee Landscape Architect post is temporary for one year and is aimed at landscape architecture students undertaking a year of work experience between Degree and Masters Degree / post graduate Diploma studies.

Candidates should be qualified to degree level with strong design and CAD skills and enthusiasm for working within a multi-disciplinary context.
