Landscape Year-Out Position in Cardiff

HLM is a creative and innovative multi-disciplinary practice involved in a range of exciting and stimulating projects where the landscape architect is an integral part of the design process. HLM ranks in the top 5 architects league table and offers collaborative working with architects and interior designers on public realm, healthcare, education and defence projects across the UK and internationally.

A Year-Out position with HLM offers the opportunity to develop your skills and knowledge through involvement at all stages of the design process.

"With a friendly atmosphere and a team which actively encourages personal development, HLM provides the opportunity to immerse yourself in the practical and professional working of a landscape architect. This position is ideal for someone seeking to utilise and improve all their skills, from planting and design, to construction, hand drawing and CAD."

Becca and Jude, current HLM Year- Out students
