

Sabrina Dreaming
Hydro-geo-poetic investigations
on the Severn Estuary

Antony Lyons

Artist, Researcher and Artist In Residence with the CCRI

Free Public Lecture
Tuesday 14th April 2015
18:45, Room TC001 (FCH Campus)
University of Gloucestershire, Cheltenham
Refreshments to follow in TC002A

INNOVATION FOR SUSTAINABLE LIVING

The Sustainable Landscape Series, sponsored by Arup Landscape & LISW, is a free public lecture series exploring issues of sustainability, sustainable development and sustainable living. The series aims to explore various innovative approaches and themes connected with the creation of landscapes to enhance the health and wellbeing of both people and planet.

Speakers

25 November 2014	Richard Tisdall Director, Tisdall Associates Ltd
13 January 2015	Gavin David Landscape Architect, W.S.P.
18 February 2015	Henry Fenby-Taylor Landscape Architect, appointed author for LI Book on BIM
10 March 2015	James Gross Director, Barton Willmore, Reading Master Planning Team
14 April 2015	Antony Lyons Artist and Researcher, Artist In Residence C.C.R.I.
12 May 2015	Tom Armour Director, Global Landscape Architecture, Arup

Info

Lectures begin 6.45pm, are approximately one hour long, free to attend, with refreshments available afterwards.
For directions and parking, see map below.

Contact

For more info contact:
David Booth dbooth@glos.ac.uk or Allan Mitchell amitchell@glos.ac.uk

Sponsors

The Sustainable Landscape Series is sponsored by Arup Landscape and the Landscape Institute South West.

Room TC001

University of Gloucestershire
Francis Close Hall
St Paul's Road
Cheltenham
GL50 4AZ

