

Technology & Landscape

Damien McCloud

Associate/ Lead GIS for Consultancy UKMEA

Free Public Lecture
Tuesday 02. October 2012

18:45, TC001 (FCH Campus)
University of Gloucestershire

INNOVATION FOR SUSTAINABLE LIVING

The Sustainable Landscape Series, sponsored by Arup Landscape & LISW, is a free public lecture series exploring issues of sustainability, sustainable development and sustainable living. This series aims to explore various innovative approaches and themes connected with the creation of landscapes to enhance the health of both people and planet.

Speakers

02 October 2012	Damien McCloud Arup / Lead GIS for Consultancy UKMEA
30 October 2012	Kathryn Lwin Founder of habitat charity River of Flowers
27 November 2012	Finlay McNab Senior Urban Designer, SUSTRANS
22 January 2013	Blanche Cameron RESET Ecological Adaptation of Built Env't
19 February 2013	TBC
19 March 2013	TBC

Info

Lectures begin 6.45pm, are approximately one hour long, free to attend, with refreshments available. For directions and parking, see map below.

Contact

For more info contact Robin Snowdon:
rsnowdon@glos.ac.uk or go to gloscape.wordpress.com

Sponsors

The Sustainable Landscape Series is sponsored by Arup Landscape and Landscape Institute South West.

