

Protecting our historic parks and garden heritage. Will your designs be in the future lists?

Jenifer White

Jenifer White is one of Historic England's two National Landscape Advisers responsible for designed landscapes conservation policy, guidance and research. 2016 is the 300th anniversary of arguably the world's best known landscape architect, Lancelot 'Capability' Brown. This evening's talk will look at our designed landscape heritage and how it is protected, the conservation challenges; and the role of Historic England, local authorities and other organisations, and of course landscape architects.
